

John Xavier Miller

John.Xavier.Miller@gmail.com JohnXavierMiller.com 202-445-6752

 @ JohnXMiller3

Experience

Writer, Upright Citizens Brigade/Caveat

December 2019-Present

Writing and starring in a sketch show called Black Guys Matter. This show explores many aspects of what it means to be a black man; from werewolves to sexual politics to profiting from our own oppression.

Contributing Writer, Reunion Experience

March 2020

Created over 100 characters for audience members to play for a live action immersive experience. Maintaining continuity between various characters and storylines to create a complete and compelling experience for audiences.

Writer, Upright Citizens Brigade

January 2020-December 2021

Writing for the preeminent NYC sketch comedy program Maude, with the team After School Snack. Biweekly meetings to pitch, write, rewrite and finalize sketches as well as participating in a writer's room to punch up the rest of the team's sketches. After School Snack also performed at the Austin Sketch Fest.

Writer/Performer, The People's Improv Theater

May 2018-December 2019

Writing and performing in monthly sketch comedy shows for the teams Candy Ass, Adult Drama Club and Old Girl. Teams create and perform entirely new sketch shows every month.

Contributing Writer, Upright Citizens Brigade

December 2016-January 2020

Writing for The Spotlight, Sketch Cram and Queerball. The Spotlight focuses on one actor a month, who has an entire sketch show written just for them. Sketch Cram is a show that is pitched, written, rehearsed and performed in a single day. Queerball is a LGBTQIA+ show that was performed monthly featuring sketches and characters.

Education

Ithaca College, BFA in Acting

Upright Citizens Brigade, Advanced Study and The Academy

Awards and Accolades

2019 Filmmatic Comedy Screenplay Awards Finalist for pilot Daddy

2020 Top 30 comedic screenplays on The Blacklist for #Murder

2021 Screencraft Screenwriting Fellowship Quarterfinalist for #Murder